

start ups

talent

- you are a micro business or start up - your people function is either tiny or doesn't yet exist
- you need 1 person to deliver a project quickly and effectively, but you can't afford a perm hire and you know it will be temporary
- you have looked for freelancers on platforms but are overwhelmed by replies and it is hard to know how to choose
- enter eighteen o four - matching skills and personality to your project needs and company values

deconstruction

- you might be 1 person or a handful of people
- you need clarity on the scope of the project to better understand how to accelerate your working practices
- you need an objective perspective of your project overview to identify inefficiencies
- enter eighteen o four - we deconstruct your current operations, analyse inefficiencies, accelerate delivery and restructure your processes

future of work

- as a start-up the future of work might not be on your radar
- in order to scale your business you need awareness of future of work trends
- you need to future proof your business so you don't hit an uphill curve
- enter eighteen o four - we conduct an audit focusing on sustainability, inclusivity and opportunity to align digital advancements with your human capital